DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-11 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: When read as a whole, claims 1, 8, 10, and 11 are allowable with respect to the following limitations:

With respect to claim 1, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of obtaining defect information on the target track and defect information on tracks ranging from the target track to a next defective track from the defect list and storing the defect information on the target track and the next defective track to the non-defective track list.

With respect to claim 8, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of obtaining a physical address to access the target track based on the defect information obtained from the obtaining defect information from the non-defective track list when the target track is listed on the non-defective track list and obtaining defect information from the defect list when the target track is not on the non-defective track list.

With respect to claim 10, the primary reason for allowance is the limitation of obtaining a physical address of a current target track by referring to defect information on the previous target
